International Tense 1962 Comes to End

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The end of an internationally tense 1962 and the start of an uncertain 1963 arrive tonight for countless millions around the troubled world.

For many, the midnight transition from the old to the new will bring joyful reflections. For others, it will spark sad recollections.
Millions will flock to churches to raise their voices in song and prayer — thanking God for the blessings of the old year and asking His guidance through the year to come.

Others will sing out the old and shout in the new at entertainment spots ranging from cozy corner taverns and tiny dance halls to big city auditoriums and night clubs.

To get to their parties, some will trudge through inches of snow. Others will walk along palm-lined boulevards under balmy, summer-like skies.

Many will be oblivious to the magic instant. They are the very sick, the very young, the very tired.

The moment will go virtually unnoticed by those assigned to the task of keeping the vital services of a complex society rolling.
Some will die around the stroke of twelve. Others will be spanked into life.

Particular emphasis has been put on highway safety with hotels, coffee shops, expensive restaurants and churches offering free lodging, coffee and a moment of rest for those whose celebrating might leave them incapable of safe driving.

Members of the Adamant group will usher in the New Year by an assault on the 14,110-foot Pike's Peak in Colorado. From the summit, the group hopes to set off a fireworks display at midnight.

An estimated 12,000 men, women and children will go through last-minute dress rehearsals for the annual Mummers' parade in Philadelphia on New Year's Day.
The 73,000 temple bells that echo across Japan New Year's Eve will include for the first time in 20 years an old favorite reclaimed from Iowa.

The bell, the Choe-in Gankoji temple bell, had rung for three centuries in Japan before it was silenced and disappeared during World War II. It turned up on the Iowa State University campus and was brought back this year to Japan.

Death Toll in Nation Already 268

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Traffic 178
Fires 42
Miscellaneous 48
Total 268

The nation's traffic death toll in the first half of the long New Year weekend appeared running below pre-holiday estimates by safety experts despite a spurt in fatalities Sunday.

A survey of accidental deaths
since 6 p.m. local time Friday showed 178 killed in traffic; 42 in fires and 48 in miscellaneous misadventures. The over-all total was 268.
The holiday ends at midnight
Tuesday.

Snowy, windy and cold weather
made driving conditions hazardous in broad areas in the Northeast and sections of the Midwest.
The National Safety Council has estimated that 420 to 480 persons may be killed in traffic accidents
during the 102-hour New Year holiday period. The record traffic toll for a four-day New Year period was 409 in the 1956-57 period.

The traffic death toll in the first half of the current holiday was far less than for the comparable period during the extended Christmas weekend when more than 300 fatalities were reported.
The final Christmas tally showed 646 traffic deaths.

Last year's New Year holiday covered three days and the final tabulation showed 337 traffic fatalities, 83 fire deaths and 50
killed in miscellaneous accidents,
for a total of 479.

Special Census at Harrisburg

HARRISBURG, Ark. (AP)— Harrisburg's population was set at 1,987 after a special census was completed last week, Mayor J. D.
May said.

May said this was an increase of 424 over the 1960 total of 1,483.
He said the additional population would give the city more state turnback funds.

The Census Bureau conducted
the count, which cost the city $520.
200 telephones.

Burglar Hits Local Station

City Police report that Purdie's
Lion Station at Elm and Third was entered sometime Sunday morning and about $3 in small change was taken from a cash drawer and slightly over $20 taken from a cigarette machine. Officers Rowe and Shirley reported entrance was gained through the front door by breaking out the glass.

Petition in Phone Sale Is Denied

SALEM, Ark. (AP)—A petition seeking to stop the forced sale of the Home Telephone Co. to the city of Salem has been denied and city officials have taken steps to purchase the system.

The petition, filed by Ralph Grable of Hardy, was denied by Chancellor P. S. Cunningham.
Salem residents voted last February to purchase the company
but legal maneuvers by Grable
have held up the sale.

Grable contended in his suit that the citizens voted on the wrong name of the company. He said voters approved the purchase of the "Home Telephone Co." when actually the company did not exist.

He said he had changed the name of the system to the "Hardy Telephone Co." early in 1961 and that the "Home Telephone Co." owns
no telephone properties.

Salem Mayor Bob Weathers said
the first step is to file a petition
with the Arkansas Public Service Commission asking it to appraise the exchange and set a price on it. City officials and Grable have been unable to get together on the value of the system.

Grable says the exchange is worth about $300,000. City officials say the value is between $70,000
and $100,000.

The purchase would be financed
by revenue bonds.

The company includes more than 60 telephones at Salem,
Viola, Hardy, Ash Flat, Evening
Shade and Williford. Salem officials want to buy only that part of the exchange in Salem—about 200 telephones.

Winter Rips Sections in the East

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Winter unleashed its fury on the Eastern section of the nation in the last hours of the year.

Below-zero temperatures were reported today in many spots.

High velocity winds tore down power lines, may have swept a youth off a ferryboat to apparent death, and overturned a motorboat whose operator drowned.

The powerful gusts also ripped off a movie house roof, toppled a huge construction crane and literally blew a river from its bed, stranding numerous boats.
The wintry blast also brought fresh accumulations of snow in some places.

Bangor, Maine, had at least 21 inches of new snow on top of the 15 inches previously fallen. Howling winds piled up drifts as high as 20 feet. The state's third largest city, population 50,000, was
"just about paralyzed," according to one newsman.

The Bangor Daily News failed to publish its morning paper today, for the first time since 1899.

The Maine blizzard, termed the worst in a decade, also forced closing of Bangor movie houses for the first time in memory and stranded some 2,000 persons in buses and cars throughout the state.

Maine's Gov. John H. Reed appealed to citizens to take in the refugees.

The 4,500 persons in Lincoln,
Maine, some 40 miles north of Bangor, were reported isolated with no power and all roads blocked.

Maryland recorded three deaths in sledding accidents—a boy and a girl whose sleds were struck by cars and a boy whose sled car-eered into a tree.

Six Boy Scouts were trapped several hours in a car stuck in a snow drift in Washington County, Pa., before highway crews freed them.

The New York Central and New Haven railroads said the severe cold knocked out signal systems at many points along their main lines in the Northeast. Trains were delayed up to three hours.

The mercury fell below zero
elsewhere, including low readings
Sunday night of -11 at Massena,
N.Y.; -13 at Montpelier, Vt.; -4
at Hartford, Conn.; -6 at Worcester, Mass.; from -20 at the Adirondack Mountain communities of Old Forge, Boonville and Big Moose in upstate New York, and
-38 atop Mt. Washington in New Hampshire's White Mountains.

Arrangements will be announced by Herndon-Cornelius service.

The station, which operates on 1250 kilocycles, formerly was a KGHI.

Harmon said the new station
would have a format of popular and "up tempo" music and would accent local news with an adult approach.

He said the new news director
would be David Arnold, and that John Rendo had been named production manager. Other new personnel will be announced later, he said.

The studio will remain in its present location.

Price had been ill for four months. He had served as mayor since 1954 and before that was an employee of the W. K. Ingram Construction Co. in West Memphis.

R. E. Eden, an alderman, served as mayor during Price's illness and will continue as acting mayor until an election can be called to fill the post.

Price was a native of Winnboro, La. He came to West Memphis in 1947. He was a past president of the Arkansas Municipal League.

ICC Allows Merger of Two Large Railways

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission
set up one of the nation's biggest railroad mergers today by authorizing the Chesapeake & Ohio
to gain control of the Baltimore & Ohio.

Approval of the control plan came as two other big Eastern railroad unification plans were being processed by the commission.

These would unite the New York Central with the Pennsylvania and the Nickel Plate with the Norfolk & Western.

The commission emphasized that the C&O-B&O case involves only an acquisition of control by an exchange of stock. But the C&O had made quite clear that this was intended as a preliminary step to merger of its operations and those of the B&O.

The ICC said the stock-exchange deal between the C&O and B&O would strengthen the financial condition of the B&O and both carriers will continue to operate as separate railroads.

"Approval of the application will not foreclose our opportunity to consider the lawfulness of any future merger application," the commission added, "nor will it prevent interested parties from raising objections to proposals of that application when it is presented to the commission for its approval."

But railroad industry observers had acknowledged beforehand that approval of the C&O-B&O control plan would be a major step toward the proposed development of three major rail systems in the East through merger.

The C&O operates about 5,091
miles of railroad in a generally V-shaped pattern running northeast and southeast from Chicago.
One arm runs through Detroit to Buffalo, N.Y. The other extends through Cincinnati to Newport News, Va. and Washington. The railroad's headquarters is in Cleveland.

The B&O, which went from riches to rags in its 135-year history, operates about 5,910 miles
of road in New York, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia,
West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri, Michigan and the District of Columbia.
It is based in Baltimore.

The C&O, whose property is valued for rate-making purposes at $197,460,975, reported net income ranging from $51.7 million in 1958 to $4.5 million for the first quarter of 1961.

By contrast, the B&O's property value for rate-making purposes was $659,453,455 but its net income dropped steadily during the same period from $16 million in 1958 to an $11.5 million deficit for the first 1961 quarter.

panied him.

The U.N. command in Leopold-town 260 miles northwest of Elisabethville, which the United Nations said Sunday had been captured by Ghanaian U.N. troops.

Fighting in Congo Area Is Resumed

By ROBIN P. MANNOCK

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo
AP)—President Moise Tshombe's troops battled U.N. Congo command units in north Katanga today, challenging a U.N. claim of lightning victory in this third military campaign against the secessionist province.

The United Nations claimed full control of the area of Elisabeth-ville, the capital, in the south. But incidents of pillage and terror prompted unrest. The U.N. command ordered looters shot on sight.

Consolidating gains, the United Nations ordered Katanga pilots to surrender by noon Tuesday and give up all their planes which had survived U.N. strafing attacks.

Tshombe himself, who has vowed to fight to the end against forced reunification of the Congo, was reported to have returned to Katanga. He took off in a Rhodesian air force transport from Salisbury for an unannounced destination after an overnight visit to the capital of the Central African Federation.

Officials in the Rhodesian bor-

Weather in Arkansas Is Cheery

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The last day of the old year brought cheery weather to Arkansas, with bright sunshine, clear skies, and the prospect of a short spell of warmer temperatures.

The Weather Bureau said the pleasant weather could continue through New Year's Day, when temperatures were expected to rise under partly cloudy skies.

Dry southerly winds were expected to blow the warming trend into the state tonight. Lows of 32 to 42 were predicted.

Highs of 55 northeast to 65
southwest were forecast for today.
A frontal system now extending from north of Montana to the Pacific was expected to put a damper on the sunshine Wednesday, bringing cloudy skies and rain into Arkansas. Mild temperatures were predicted.

Temperatures were in the 50s
Sunday afternoon. The lows this morning ranged from 19 at Arkansas to 34 at Harrison. No rainfall was reported during the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m.
today.

In a national weather outlook
for New Year's Day the bureau
said that only in the Northeast will temperatures continue below normal. A few snow flurries are predicted for the extreme Northern edge of the nation from the Rocky Mountains to the northern Appalachians.

ian company were under fire. Messages reaching Leopoldville this morning reported three Katanga companies were still in the town Sunday night.

However, the Ghanaians were reported by the United Nations to have captured a road and rail junction about 15 miles from Katanga, while Swedish troops seized intact but 10 miles of railway track to the east.

A U.N. message to Katanga pilots of both civil and military planes ordered them to fly their aircraft to the U.N. air base of Manono between 6 a.m. and noon. All Katanga planes which have not been surrendered by that time will be destroyed wherever they are found, the U.N. command said.

The United Nations said earlier that Swedish jet fighters had almost completely eliminate the Katanga air force, destroying two British Vampire jets and four or five converted Harvard trainers on the ground.

The United Nations reported that the Belgian mayor of Elisabethville had agreed to cooperate with the world organization. The United Nations claimed on Sunday Belgian public utilities technicians had refused to work for the United Nations but later agreed to work under the auspices of the Red Cross.

Katanga's president, Moise Tshombe, after an overnight visit to neighboring Southern Rhodesia, left Salisbury in a Rhodesian air force transport. His destination was not disclosed, but it was believed he was returning to Katanga.

Tshombe vowed that his secessionist province would fight to the death rather than accept forced reunification with the Congo central government. He said the Katangans "were only defending themselves" and the U.N. "for a long time prepared to attack us."

On the diplomatic front, pressure built up in Britain and Belgium against any attempt to translate the U.N. military sweep into quick Congo unity.

A British government plea for "discussion and negotiation" in Katanga brought charges from the opposition Labor party that Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservative regime was trying to thwart U.N. plans for ending the partition of the Congo.

British, Belgian and American capital back mining operations in mineral-rich Katanga, which seceded from the poverty-stricken rest of the Congo almost as soon as Belgium ended its colonial rule in June 1960.

"A military promenade" was the label pinned by a Western diplomat on the swift U.N. cleanup of Tshombe's forces. The U.N. command said it launched the three-day offensive only after it endured a crescendo of Katanga bombardments.

U.N. Secretary General U Thant sent congratulations on the success of the operation to his field commanders.

Thant said it had been "an unhappy circumstance and a matter of regret to me that it became necessary" to resort to military force.

188 Million Americans Now

WASHINGTON (AP) — New Year's Day will dawn on 188,045,000 men, women and children in the United States.

That's the Jan. 1 population as estimated by the Census Bureau. Such an audacious synch chorus has 2,755,000 voices more than the one that welcomed the New Year 1962.

Adams to Retire

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Carl Adams, state welfare commissioner since 1954, officially retires from office today. Gov. Orval E. Faubus has not yet named Adams' successor. A. J. Moss, assistant commissioner, will serve in Adams' capacity until a successor is chosen.

Just Little Ordeal of Office Life

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—One of life's little ordeals is dressing up for an office function.

"It's a meeting of the 35-year club," says the boss crisply. "probably call on you for a few remarks. Black tie, of course."

Of course, black tie. But what does that mean? It means a dinner jacket and a bow tie under your second chin.

A dinner jacket? The last one you have left in the family is one you have inherited from your great-great uncle, the man who made a wry face at the camera before Apollonox.

You try it on and your wife says:

"The South may rise again, but not in that uniform. It won't do, dandyman."

So you go to the merchants who rent tuxes, and come home with one for $12.50 a waiter's special.

"That's more like it," says your wife, swiping willy at the moths. So you go to the party feeling tall and black-and-white proud. Wonderful. The feeling of mutual-ity among others flows through you like the pulse of a favorite artery.

You feel like a king of the hill in the crowd. You are so proud you buy a round of drinks. An old-timer, pausing in the middle of a chorus of "Sweet Adeline," buys a round and says:

"I've been retired for three years, and life is wonderful. How do you stand?" he says.

"Well," you tell him hopefully, "I've only got 12 years, 3 months, 4 days and 27 minutes to go—but the firm is so much fun to work with now that sometimes I forget the exact distance I have left to enjoy."

"Cheer up," says the old-timer comfortably. "It was my experience with the organization that the first 41 years were the easiest. But the last two years, five months, two weeks, three days and 16 minutes were awfully humdrum. They kinda got on my nerves."

"Yes, sir," you agree, thinking it will be some time until you yourself will reach the 41-year mark, and you feel prematurely tired.

As the party breaks up, one of the old-timers thrusts a burning cigar into the lapel of your rented tux, and demands fiercely: "Do you think any man will ever beat Babe Ruth's record of 714 home runs?"

No, sir.

Tuaboat Missing With 16 Aboard

NEW YORK (AP) — A 100-foot tugboat, the Gwendolyn Steers, which radioed that she was taking on water, is missing today with 16 men aboard.

The Coast Guard said it was checking a report that the tug's lifeboat had been sighted with one body in it.

The lifeboat report came from the superintendent of the Steers Sand and Gravel Co. of Huntington, N.Y., operators of the tug, the Coast Guard said.

The report said that the lifeboat was sighted in the vicinity of the Eatons Neck lifeboat station on the North Shore of Long Island. The tug last made radio contact at about 4:45 p.m. Sunday, the Coast Guard said. Since 6 p.m., all attempts to contact the vessel have failed.

Cotton Bowl Maid
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas' representative in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas New Year's Day will be Karen Giss of Little Rock. Bowl officials have invited each Southwest Conference College to send a beauty queen to take part in several functions prior to the game. Karen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon J. Giss of Little Rock, is a 1962 Razorback beauty and the former Miss City Beautiful of Little Rock.

BUILDING WITH THE MOSTEST—Heliport now under construction tops New York City's Pan Am building, the world's largest office structure, scheduled for completion next March. Located just north of Grand Central Terminal, its 2,400,000 feet of floor space will accommodate 25,000 office workers in a 60-story, 808-foot-high oblong based tower. The 18 escalators and 63 elevators are engineered to handle its city-size number of occupants, plus a quarter-million sightseers daily. They'll come by train, subway, on foot and in the cars which will fill the building's 400-car garage. Copters will give service to New York's three airports and to the New York's World's Fair during '64 and '65.

Frowns on Med Center Pay Patients

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A proposal that more beds at the University of Arkansas Medical Center be opened to paying patients was cold shouldered Thursday by private hospital and medical officials.

Anything that would affect occupancy levels of private hospitals would be disastrous, said Administrator A. Allen Weintraub of St. Vincent Infirmary at Little Rock.

"Let's say it," added D. H. King Wade of Hot Springs, president of the Arkansas Medical Society. "The medical profession has a great many people who fear the center is in competition with them."

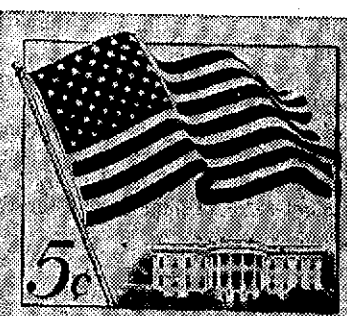

Medical Center officials also appeared in sympathy with the views expressed by Weintraub. They said they were trying to collect what the could from all patients.

The proposal was advanced by State Sen. Robert Harvey of Swifton, one member of a Legislative Council subcommittee studying ways of making the center more self-supporting. Other members are Sen. Tom Allen of Brinkley and Rep. Joel Y. Ledbetter of Pulaski County.

Dr. Elvin Shuffield of Little Rock, secretary of the state Medical Society, agreed with Wade. He said he believed a secret ballot among doctors would show 99 per cent of them opposed to the center opening its beds to private patients.

The center has asked for a $1 million annual increase in its budget in order to utilize the facility's 450-bed capacity. The increase would give it $4,530,000 for fiscal 1963-64 and $5,105,000 for fiscal 1964-65. Gov. Orval E. Faubus has recommended an increase of $31,000 a year.

Students Plan Parachute Jump

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Two Arkansas State College students will herald the new year at midnight tonight by driving 3,000 feet through space with flares in their hands.

Ken Sisler and John Davis will jump from an airplane 5,500 feet up at 20 seconds before midnight and make a sky dive into the new year, opening their chutes at 2,500 feet at one second after midnight. Sisler, of Dexter, Mo., and Davis, of Marked Tree, Ark., are members of the college's Skydiving Club. Sisler has made 350 parachute jumps and Davis, 160. Both have made night jumps before, but both said this will be their first jump beginning in one year and ending in another.

university, said 314 beds now were open at the center. He said 323 beds would be open by mid-January.

The Legislative Council, at Harvey's urging, deferred action on the center budget after the center said the governor's allocation would not be enough.

The subcommittee is to report its findings next Thursday.

Bank Bandits Have Very Busy Year

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Bank bandits were busy in Arkansas this year but the state fared better than those surrounding it.

Police officials say the worst part is that very little of the stolen money has been recovered and only a few suspects are in custody.

Records show only one of the five bank robberies committed in the state has been solved—that is, money recovered and bandits apprehended.

None of the estimated $23,579 stolen in the four robberies has been recovered. The only bank robbery marked solved is the robbery of a branch bank of the American National Bank at North Little Rock.

Some $20,680 was recovered after the robbery. The box score on other bank jobs show:

July 12: $16,879 stolen in the Bank of Atkins robbery three persons charged, no money recovered.

July 15: Burglary of the Bank of Leslie. No arrests. A total of $5,100 missing.

July 17: Robbery of Rice Growers Bank of Wheatley. No money recovered. No arrests. About $800 taken.

July 18: Robbery of Gillett branch of the DeWitt Bank and Trust Co.; $800 missing; one per-

PEOPLE LAUNCHER—Tunnel-like telescoping gangway carries passengers from new railroad terminal, background, to ships at dockside in Bremerhaven, Germany.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation, cooperating in the investigations, said it has no new information.

McDonald said, however, that Arkansas fared better than some other states in bank robberies in 1962, though the five cases were the most recorded in two years in the state.

"We've been fortunate in the past," McDonald said. "We've had good luck in catching the criminals and sending them to prison."

He attributed Arkansas' normally low rate of bank robberies and burglaries to the state penitentiary system. Criminals just don't want to go there, he said, because they dislike agricultural work and "we give them plenty."

An FBI spokesman said all of the 1962 cases were different and were not committed by a gang.

"There was no set pattern to the cases," the spokesman said. "None of them were comparable to any past bank case in the state."

Capt. McDonald said the reason Arkansas didn't have more bank robberies this year is because many of the bank bandits are already in prison.

He said rash of bank robberies, all in July, was the usual pattern, in that "other triggers another."

Writer's Daughter Is Found Dead

NEW YORK (AP)—Mary Sherwood Elms, 39, daughter of the late Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Robert E. Sherwood, was found dead Wednesday in her Manhattan apartment. Police said her wrists had been slashed by a razor.

An autopsy was scheduled for today.

Authorities termed the death an apparent suicide, and quoted friends and the maid who found the body as saying Mrs. Elms had been despondent about a recent divorce.

Sherwood, an author of books as well as a playwright, died in 1955.

Spanish in a Santiago Teacher's College. "You need government authorization to buy good clothes or luxury items, and it's easier to do without than stand in the long lines."

Mrs. Portuondo, 36, whose husband got permission to leave Cuba one month after his marriage, said that after he was captured in the invasion she tried to resign from her job.

"They wouldn't accept my resignation because there is a shortage of teachers," she said. "Restrictions became worse and worse, but honestly speaking nothing had happened to me."

Aida Rodriguez Valladares, who arrived with her husband and two children, said, "One is continuously under a severe nervous strain because of the vigilance. It's worse than the food shortages."

The food problem, she said, "was a question of simply eating without the extras we used to enjoy."

An 18-year-old girl, who said she wouldn't give her name because her parents are still in Havana, told of being expelled from high school two years ago "for my attitude against the government. I haven't worked or done anything since. I lived with my parents."

Mrs. Rodriguez Valladares said she kept her children out of school the past two terms to keep them from being brainwashed.

Leal Cruz, who arrived with his wife and child, said—as did many others—that the great majority of the Cuban population is against Castro.

He was asked why there had been no uprising or trouble during the recent Cuban crisis.

"The police watch as constantly," his wife put in. "We couldn't move during the crisis."

MAN ON THE SKEWBALD MARE

By Nelson C. Nye

XXXI

Brownwater Bill reluctantly got on the horse Rafe's father had been sharing with Bunny, grunting and stumbling as he pulled himself up. He scowled like a Piegian squaw as he turned the horse in a walk after Rafe's. "You figure to wait out back of the bank?"

When he got no answer to his question, he said: "Why can't we do this someplace else. There's lots of better—"

Rafe, twirling around, growled, "I can think of some place I'd rather be, too, but we got to get into the safe."

Bill's jaw dropped. "Now look here," he wheezed, all choked up with emotion. "I didn't hire out to stick up no bank!"

He pulled his horse to a stop and sat glaring at Rafe.

"You want to marry my sister?" Rafe asked, real soft.

The fat man stared as though confronted with a snake. When he began to swell up, Rafe said, eyes hard: "I'll be waitin'. Fetch Chilton's tinbadge and be there in 10 minutes."

Swinging around in the saddle, Rafe rode off.

Waiting, Rafe decided, was the hardest thing a man had to do. Long as a feller could keep himself busy he went along pretty well, but give him time to think and all that kept him up began flying apart. Doubts crowded in, his nerves got to jangling, every joint in his carcass seemed about to give way. If he could only get down and stretch out . . .

He didn't dare. It was all he could do to stay awake as it was. His eyes felt like they'd been rolled in sand. His face was numb, his feet twin screaming lumps of misery. Every muscle in his body was a separate ache, jerking and twisting like a skillet full of eels; and any moment, he knew, this early morning quiet might explode into gunplay.

He near screamed just thinking about it.

Where were Spangler, and Rafe's brother, and their gun crew? No matter how many risks he put in their way, Spangler, he was certain, wasn't going to be stopped this side of a bullet.

Duke was the weak one, always spinning like a weathercock, wanting things he had no right to, squirming, twisting, hating, scheming — yet in this very weakness there was a desperate kind of conscienceless strength that could be harder than iron. It took a pretty cold fish to plot

Life Under Castro Not Very Good

By LOUIS UCHITELLE

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—What is life like under Fidel Castro these days?

Money is abundant, but essential foodstuffs and clothing are in short supply. Government vigilance and fear is the lot of those who oppose the regime, but physical violence is rare. And non-conformity can cost a man his job.

These were the views expressed by many of the more than 900 relatives of Cuban prisoners who arrived here Thursday aboard the freighter African Pilot.

"There is money, but food is hard to come by," said Mrs. Norge Portuondo, a teacher of the bank to see Chilton. One of the pair Spangler'd staked out at Pike's! If the guy hadn't ducked Rafe might never have seen him.

He went cold all over. Were the rest of them here, stashed around between building, or was his ranny on his own?

Either way, Rafe smelled trouble.

Writer's Daughter Is Found Dead

NEW YORK (AP)—Mary Sherwood Elms, 39, daughter of the late Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Robert E. Sherwood, was found dead Wednesday in her Manhattan apartment. Police said her wrists had been slashed by a razor.

An autopsy was scheduled for today.

Authorities termed the death an apparent suicide, and quoted friends and the maid who found the body as saying Mrs. Elms had been despondent about a recent divorce.

Sherwood, an author of books as well as a playwright, died in 1955.

Spanish in a Santiago Teacher's College. "You need government authorization to buy good clothes or luxury items, and it's easier to do without than stand in the long lines."

Mrs. Portuondo, 36, whose husband got permission to leave Cuba one month after his marriage, said that after he was captured in the invasion she tried to resign from her job.

"They wouldn't accept my resignation because there is a shortage of teachers," she said. "Restrictions became worse and worse, but honestly speaking nothing had happened to me."

Aida Rodriguez Valladares, who arrived with her husband and two children, said, "One is continuously under a severe nervous strain because of the vigilance. It's worse than the food shortages."

The food problem, she said, "was a question of simply eating without the extras we used to enjoy."

An 18-year-old girl, who said she wouldn't give her name because her parents are still in Havana, told of being expelled from high school two years ago "for my attitude against the government. I haven't worked or done anything since. I lived with my parents."

Mrs. Rodriguez Valladares said she kept her children out of school the past two terms to keep them from being brainwashed.

Leal Cruz, who arrived with his wife and child, said—as did many others—that the great majority of the Cuban population is against Castro.

He was asked why there had been no uprising or trouble during the recent Cuban crisis.

"The police watch as constantly," his wife put in. "We couldn't move during the crisis."

Green Bay in Title Win But It Was Close

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Green Bay did it again. Only this time it was closer.

Vince Lombardi's Packers did not humiliate the New York Giants Sunday in their 16-7 victory at frigid Yankee Stadium as they had done in their 37-0 rout last New Year's Eve in Green Bay. The net result was the same, though. The Packers still are champions of the National Football League.

The story of the game is told best by the voting for the most valuable player. No Jim Taylor. No Paul Hornung. No Y. A. Little. All were ignored. The award went to Ray Nitschke, the Packers' 6-foot-3, 220-pound ball-hawk who may be the middle linebacker of all-star teams for the next 10 years.

Nitschke recovered a Phil King fumble on the Giants' 28 late in the second period with the Packers holding a perilous 3-0 lead. Two plays later, after a 21-yard pass from Hornung to Boyd Dowler, Taylor charged headlong into the end zone on a 7-yard burst for Green Bay's only touchdown. Earlier Nitschke deflected a title pass that was intercepted by Dan Currie.

Shortly after the Giants scored their only touchdown when Erich Barnes blocked Max McGee's punt and rookie Jiff Collier of Arkansas recovered in the end zone, Nitschke swung into action again in the third period. He pounced on the ball on the Giants' 42 when Sam Higney fumbled a punt. Five plays later, Jerry Kramer kicked the second of his three field goals. The kicks traveled 26, 20 and 30 yards.

"You couldn't throw the long one on a day like this," said Coach Alie Sherman of the Giants whose club won the Eastern Conference title on the passing of "Title." "Of course, it was the same for them."

It was 20 degrees at game time. The weather soon turned for the worse, dropping down to 17 with a 20-mile-an-hour wind blowing passes, punts, hails, dust and even the Packers bench (unoccupied) across the frozen turf.

The only points the Giants scored were turned in by the defense on the blocked punt by Barnes and the recovery by Collier.

The Giants stopped the first Packers drive in the first quarter and forced Lombardi to settle for a field goal. Then New York started to move with Tittle hitting Del Shofner twice and then King until Currie broke it up with an interception on the 10 and ran it back to the 40.

Although the Packers led all the way, ranging from 3-0 to 10-0, 10-7, 13-7 and finally 16-7, the Giants were in the ball game until Kramer kicked his third field goal with only 1:50 to play.

Willie Wood, the Packers' all-star safety man, was thrown out of the game for striking an official, back judge Tom Kelleher, after he was called for pass interference in the third period. The official said it was an overt act that called for a disqualification.

Wood gets an automatic $50 fine. The championship was the eighth for the Packers and their fifth victory in seven playoffs.

They won three in 1929, 1930 and 1931 before the league was split into two divisions. The Giants now have lost four playoffs in a row and have a sad 3-10 record.

Each packer gets $5,888.57 and each Giant $4,166.55 from the gross gate of $1,243,110, all records.

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Thirty-two high school basketball teams opened first round action today in the 16th annual Northeast Arkansas basketball tournament, one of the season's greatest tests of cage strength for teams in that area.

First round games continue through Wednesday afternoon, then Class A quarterfinals begin Wednesday night. Finals are Saturday night.

The tournament is held in Arkansas State College's spacious field house. Proceeds are divided among participating schools.

Paragould is second-seeded in the A division, Manila is third and Leachville is fourth. Marmaduke is second-seeded in the B division, Hickory Ridge is third and Turrell is fourth.

Tourney Honors for Hog Player

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Two players on the championship Loyola of Chicago squad were unanimous choices for the 37th annual All-College basketball Tournament All-Tournament team Saturday.

Larry Wofford of the University of Arkansas, which placed fifth in the tournament, was named to the second team.

The Loyola candidates were Jerry Harkness and Les Hunter. Wyoming sophomore Flynn Robinson and George Kirk of Memphis State were also unanimous choices of the eight newsmen who covered the tournament. Paul Sikes of Creighton rounded out the team.

Joining Wofford on the second squad were Roy Wofford of Toledo, Vic House and John Egan of Loyola and Bud Kuper of Oklahoma City.

Results of the Holiday Cage Tournaments

By ED CORRIGAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
With the mad annual whirligig of Holiday tournaments out of the way, college basketball settles down to normal this week. Most of the conference races get under way and the Missouri Valley resumes its chase of Cincinnati.

The Bearcats, national collegiate champions the last two years and the MVC titleholders three years in a row, have won 27 straight games and where it will stop nobody knows.

Coach Ed Jucker's outfit goes after No. 28 Wednesday against Houston, then opens its league season against Wichita Saturday. The team probably will be without the services of 6-foot-8 Dale Heidolting, who injured an ankle last week.

Since sophomore Ron Krick, who was counted on to fill the vacancy created by Paul Hogue's graduation, also is out, the Bearcats could be ripe for a kill. Wichita, especially, boasting a 9-2 record with seven straight victories, appears dangerous. Further, Coach Ralph Miller's Shockers already have knocked two teams—Arizona State and Ohio State—from the undefeated list. Wichita polished off the Buckeyes 71-54 last Saturday.

Cincinnati, 9-0 for the season, ranks No. 1 in the Associated Press poll, and Ohio State is No. 2.

Here's a rundown on the other major conferences: BIG TEN—Illinois, No. 4 team in the country, won the Holiday Festival in New York, whipped West Virginia 92-74 in the final, and looks ready to make things rough for Ohio State.

SOUTHEASTERN—This one opens Saturday with the four top teams clawing at each other. Kentucky (7-2), No. 5 team in the country, entertains Georgia Tech (7-0), and Auburn, (8-0), which won the Sugar Bowl Tournament with a 71-69 decision over Houston, faces No. 10 Mississippi State (7-2).

SOUTHWEST—Southern—Netho dist appears to be the class of the league, with a 5-0 record although Texas A&M, the Jonesboro Classic winner—67-53 over Tulane—has a strong entry.

BIG EIGHT—Kansas won the league pre-season tournament with a 90-88 overtime squeaker over Kansas State. Kansas opens against powerful Colorado Saturday and that should provide a 90-88 overtime squeaker over Kansas State. Kansas opens against powerful Colorado Saturday and that should provide a definite line on how far the Jayhawks can go.

BIG SIX—UCLA (10-2), boasting eight straight victories and a 68-64 decision over Colorado State U. in the final of the Los Angeles Classic, now takes over the favorite's spot. Southern California, No. 7 in the current AP poll, lost twice in the tournament.

WESTERN ATHLETIC—The league chase doesn't start for another week, but sixth-ranked Arizona State (9-1) is the favorite. The Sun Devils won the Queen City tournament, turning back Canisius in the final, 67-63.

ATLANTIC COAST—Duke (8-2), which topped all the way from second to eighth in the AP poll, clobbered Wake Forest, 113-87, the defending champion in a non-league game.

IVY—Penn and Princeton are the co-favorites, each with 7-1 non-league records. Lo and behold they clash in their league opener at Penn Saturday.

SOUTHERN—The race is in full swing with West Virginia leading with a 3-0 record.

A fantastic total of 62 college tournaments wound up Saturday night. Loyola of Chicago, No. 3 in the country and the highest scoring team around, won the All-College tournament at Oklahoma City with a 93-92 victory over Wyoming to run its record to 10-0.

Pharmacist Got Right Information

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (AP)—Pharmacist John Swire heard an authoritative voice when he answered the telephone at his drug store.

"This is an agent of the FBI. We have information that your store is going to be held up in a few minutes. We have the place under surveillance and we will arrest the man as soon as he comes out. Co-operate with him in every way so we can get evidence."

A shabbily dressed man walked in a few minutes later and announced that he was staging a holdup.

He took $50 and some narcotics and calmly walked out.

Swire is still waiting for the FBI.

Perry's Cagers Win Another

Friday night at Jones Field House Perry's Independents downed Graham Hall intramural team from Arkadelphia by a score of 69 to 66. S. Mitchell led the winners with 15 while Odom and Loe got 14 each. For Graham Hall Darnie Hatfield tossed in 30.

Five AIC Teams Have Title Chance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Five teams enter the post-holiday basketball season with a shot at the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference title.

Arkansas State Teachers College leads the pack with a 4-1 record but Ouachita holds the same margin and three other teams—defending champion Arkansas Tech, Harding and Arkansas A&M—have three victories to one loss.

Tech is host to Ouachita Saturday night at Russellville in a contest that draws top billing as the AIC returns to league warfare.

Tech follows the Ouachita clash with road games at A&M and Harding College. Coach Sam Hindsman's Wonder Boys hold three consecutive AIC championships.

Last week only ASTC and Ouachita saw action among the top five. The Bears split a pair of matches with Tennessee outfits as part of a two-night doubleheader at Batesville while Ouachita lost twice in the McNeese, La. Holiday Festival.

Arkansas College won both its games in the Batesville round-robin, topping Martin Bracch 61-44 and Union University 75-59.

Other AIC games this week match Arkansas College at Harding, Ozarks at Arkansas A&M and Southern State at Henderson.

NE Teams Fare Rather Badly

HARRISON, Ark. (AP)—North-east Arkansas teams fared badly Saturday night in the Harrison Prep Holiday Basketball Tournament.

Fort Smith romped to a 65-30 decision over Leachville and Harrison flattened Paragould, 43-28.

Fort Smith and Harrison reversed Friday night decisions, when Paragould upset the Grizzlies and Leachville trounced Harrison.

Fort Smith had an easy time with Leachville and after gaining a 15-8 halftime lead shut out the Lions during the third quarter and let the reserves take over.

Paragould's offense was crippled when all-star Gary Washington was lost early in the second quarter via foul. Washington had only one point.

Tarrison led 23-9 at the half.

Hogs 5th With Creighton Win

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Loyola of Chicago, the nation's No. 3 team, put down a stubborn Wyoming 93-82 Saturday night and captured the 27th All-College Basketball Tournament.

Earlier, Memphis State defeated Oklahoma City University, 80-77, for third place. Arkansas defeated Creighton, 73-61, for fifth place, and Toledo downed Baylor 70-59 for seventh place.

Wyoming came into the tournament with a 3-4 record and pulled two upsets to gain the finals.

Arkansas, with Larry Wofford hitting 19 points and Tommy Boyer collecting 17, lead Creighton most of the way but was unable to pull away until the final minutes.

Creighton led briefly after four minutes of play but the score stood 32-28 for Arkansas at the half.

Paul Silas, the nation's top rebounder, was high for Creighton with 13 points. He pulled in 23 rebounds.

Saylor's Could Set New Record

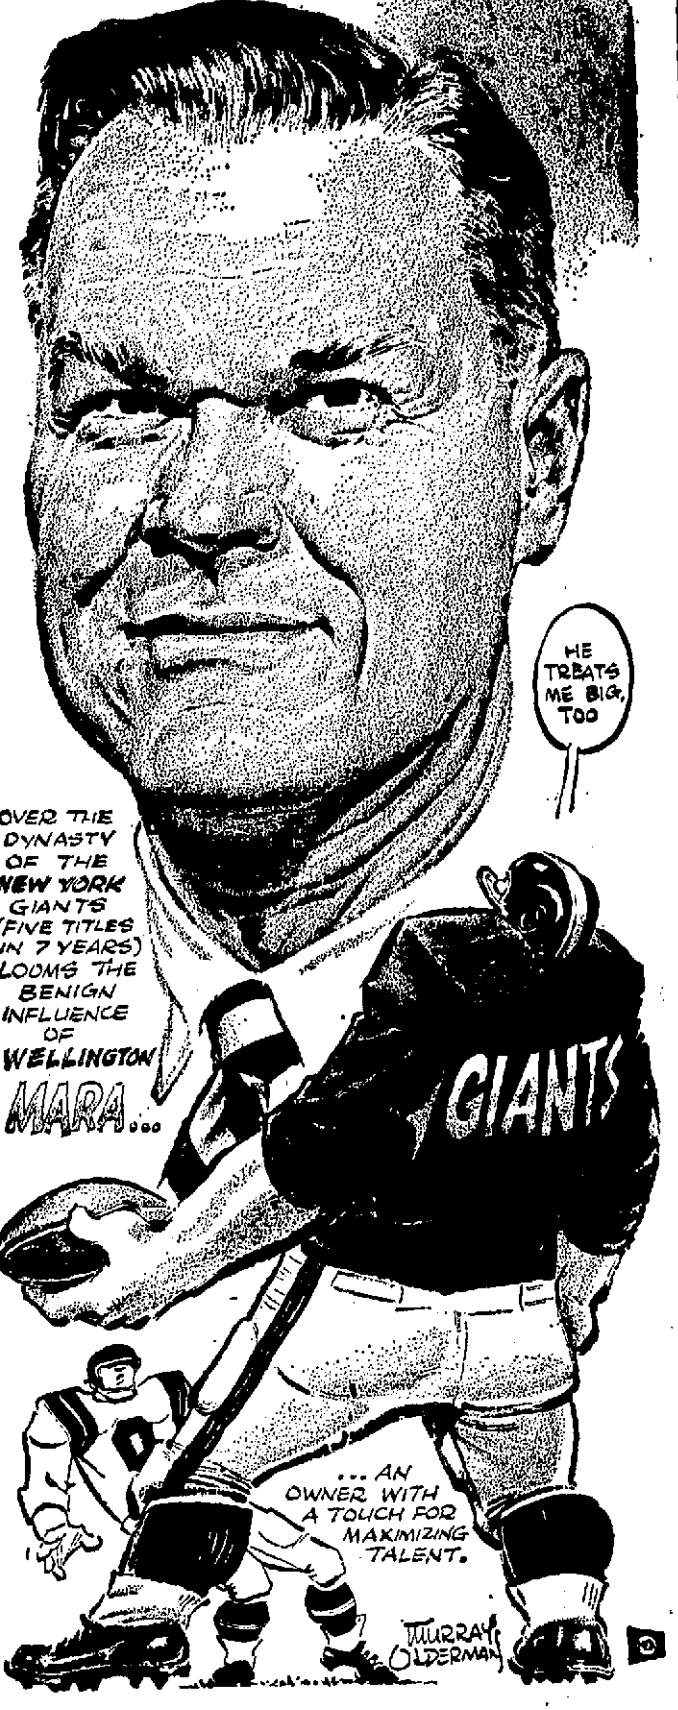

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP)—If he continues his present pace, Arkansas Tech's Ken Saylor's could establish another Arkansas Intercollegiate record this week as he begins his final big swing with the Wonder Boys.

Saylor has set, or is threatening, all 19 individual records kept by the AIC. He now owns six of these marks and with his present average can set at least 10 more.

The record he is nearest to is for total points in a four year period. Saylor now has 1,444—26 off the mark Edward Dopson set in 1948-51.

Saylor also could break the field goal and free throw career records for conference games within the next two or three games. He has 574 field goals—just 24 off Dopson's mark, and has 299 free throws, only 13 off Jimmy Reppo's record of 312.

MAN OF A GIANT

5 Arkansans Played in Title Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Green Bay Packers and New York Giants carried five Arkansans into the scramble Saturday for the National League Football championship.

Jim Collier, rookie of Van Buren who played for the University of Arkansas, scored the Giants' only touchdown when he grabbed a blocked Green Bay punt in the end zone. Collier had helped block the ball.

Collier was the only Arkansan active on the Giants squad. Paul Dudley, rookie from the Razorbacks, sat out the game because of a knee injury.

Dave Hammer, former Porker from Parkin, handled chores in the Packers' rush line. Lew Carpenter, another former Razorback, served in his usual role of utility man, in which he leads the league.

The other Arkansans were Willie Davis, a Grambling, La. product who grew up at Texarkana, and Elijah Pitts of Philander Smith and Conway. Davis was at defensive end and Pitts Alternates between killing and returning punts.

Henderson Plans Annual Tourney

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP)—A record field of 31 teams are on tap for the Henderson State Teachers High School Invitational basketball tournament, which opens here today.

Eight first-round games are on the slate today, three Tuesday, and five Wednesday. Second round games begin Thursday and quarterfinals Friday.

Semifinals are Saturday and the finals will be held next Monday. Delight, with only one loss thus far in the season, enters the tourney as a favorite.

Teachers Lose to Tennesseans

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas State Teachers College lost to Tennessee Martin Branch Saturday night, 79-75, marring what otherwise would have been a perfect record for state teams in a two-day meet.

Arkansas College downed Union of Tennessee 75-59 in the second game Saturday night. The Scots had topped Martin in the opening round Friday while ASTC whipped Union.

Bob Frey scored 21 points to lead Branch to the victory. Mickey McFartridge tallied 17 for ASTC. Lavaughn Robertson led the Highlanders with 26 points and Warren Kock hit for 21 for Union.

State Entries Are Defeated

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—All Arkansas entrants have been defeated in the Sugar Bowl Junior Tennis Tournament.

Mimi Raney of Little Rock, only Arkansan to survive opening rounds Saturday, was downed Sunday in the quarter finals, by Norman Revman of Miami, Fla., 2-6, 6-1, 8-6.

Saturday, she had defeated Gayle Dorbe of New Orleans 6-1, 6-0 in the girls singles division for 12-year-olds and under.

Jeff Hart of Little Rock was defeated by Bob Feldman of Baton Rouge, La. 6-0, 6-0 in the first round of the age-14 and under boys division.

Larry Back was defeated by Gene Hamilton of Asheville, N.C., 6-2, 6-4 and Tommy Hudson was edged by Woodie Faulk of New Orleans, 7-5, 6-3. Both competed in the age-14 and under division.

In the age-12 and under bracket, Glen Seigel of Little Rock was downed by Ronnie Brinkman of New Orleans, 6-1, 6-2.

Bowling Alley at Bentonville Burns

BENTONVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The Bentonville Lanes Bowling Alley which had been in operation less than a year, was destroyed by fire shortly after midnight today.

The bowling alley had closed shortly before midnight and no one was in the building at the time of the fire, firemen said. By the time fire equipment arrived, the fire was out of control.

Surrounding buildings were not damaged. Bob and Noel Miller of Bentonville, owners of the alley, declined to estimate damage.

Gives Birth to Quads, 3 Die

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The wife of an aerospace engineer gave birth to quadruplets Sunday. Three of them died.

The fourth, a boy was reported in critical condition today.

"We were both told together (of the deaths)," said the father, Alvin Spector, 27. "Of course we were very sad to hear it. There was nothing we could do. The hospital did everything they could. We just had to accept the fact."

The three boys and a girl were the first children born to the Spectors, childhood sweethearts who married two years ago.

They have 38 clocks in the 10 rooms of their home—no two set at the same time. The clocks will start bonging and chiming around midnight and will continue for some time thereafter.
